“Cape Town became our obvious choice after we saw the avid interest shown by the various healthcare companies exhibiting on the floor. We believe Africa Health has great potential.”
Borja Polo De La Morena, International Director, Healthcare Technology, Spain

“It’s wonderful to see Africa Health in Cape Town and watch people network, come together and make a difference in the industry. It’s great to see how much the medical industry has evolved with the increasing life expectancy, making it essential to host an event like Africa Health in Cape Town.”
